

COOKIE POLICY

Our use of cookies

Here you will find information on what cookies may be set when you visit the Premier Components U.K. Limited website and how to reject or delete those cookies. Information is also contained in our Privacy Policy.

By continuing to use this website, you are agreeing to our use of cookies in the manner described in this policy.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a data file that a website sends to your browser which is then stored on the device that you are using to browse the website.

Cookies are an extremely common technology for remembering certain information about a visitor to a website. The vast majority of websites currently make use of cookies and they are commonly used for a wide range of tasks. We use cookies for the following purposes:

- as necessary for website operation, for example to enable you to login to secure areas of our website, to recognise the device you are using so we can display dedicated layout for that particular device, or make use of other secure services;
- to analyse the use of our website by, for example, recognising and counting the number of visitors and how they move around our website. This helps us to see what parts of the site are popular and which sections need improving to make the experience better for users;
- to recognise you when you return to our website so that content can be personalised for you, for example, by greeting you by name and remembering your preferences; and
- to record your visit to our website and the pages you have visited and links you have followed.

This document gives you information on the specific cookies used on this website.

How to control and delete cookies

We will not use cookies to collect personally identifiable information about you. However, if you wish to restrict or block the cookies which are set on this website (or, indeed, on any other website) you can do this through your browser settings. The “Help” function within your browser should tell you how.

Alternatively, you may wish to visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/> which contains comprehensive information on how to do this on a wide variety of browsers. You will also find details on how to delete cookies from your computer, as well as more general information about cookies.

Please be aware that restricting cookies may mean that you will not be able to take full advantage of all the features or services available on this website.

Main cookies used on our website

The main cookies used on our site can be found at: <https://docs.worldsecuresystems.com/reference/misc/bc-cookies.html>.

Third party cookies

Please note that to improve your website experience third parties (including but not limited to providers of external services like web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies on our website to deliver certain services and features. For example, we sometimes embed video content from websites such as Vimeo. As a result, when you visit a page with content embedded, you may be presented with cookies from these websites. We do not control the dissemination of these cookies and you should check the relevant third party website for more information about these cookies.

Some examples of the third party cookies used by these organisations, as well as information on how to opt-out, are outlined below:
